On League Issue

(By Associated Press)

Rochester, N. Y., October 21.—Making his first speech of the campaign in New York State Senator Harding again challenged his Democratic opponent here today to show by his public utterances where he has changed his position on the league of nations since he accepted the Republican nomination.

Re-stating his stand he declared "the nation cannot take seriously the Democratic insistence that the covenant shall be considered for acceptance as it stands" and added that for such a rejection he had since stood unflinchingly.

He also asserted he had favored consistently an international association in the interests of peace, but could not under present conditions frame a definite and specific plan.

"I am not that kind of a candidate," he continued. "It is easy enough for a candidate who is going to lose to say almost anything about a league of nations or any future plans for America."

"The Democratic forces have paraded the solemn referendum of our foreign relations and we have gladly accepted, but that does not blind us to the fact it is designed to divert attention to the unhappy failure of domestic affairs. The great referendum will not make the American people forget the tragic mismanagement of their own affairs because they have long since passed judgment on our foreign relations."

(By Associated Press)
Buffalo, N. Y., October 21.—A hold-up of a New York Central railroad train in the railroad yards here today resulted in the wounding of a trainman and netted the bandits $100.

A shot by one of the robbers grazed the head of Mary Jane Smith, 13 years old, of Cleveland, who prompted by curiosity disobeyed the command of the bandits that all the passengers remain in their seats or berths. A braid of hair was shot from the head of the Smith girl.

(By Associated Press)
Boston, October 21.—The discovery of four cases of Anthrax in this state caused Dr. Eugene R. Kelly, state commissioner of public health, to issue a warning today against the use of the cheaper grades of shaving brushes.

All the cases have been traced to brushes the hair of which was imported from Manchuria, the commissioner stated.

As it has been established that the germs may remain in the brush many months notwithstanding its soaking in hot water and soap, the commissioner recommends that brushes of inferior quality purchased in the last two years be replaced by others of good quality.

NEARING DEATH

Cork, Ireland, October 21.—A telegram received here today by a friend of Lord Mayor MacSwiney from the latter's sister said: "Get Cork to pray for speedy death."

Demand of Workers

(By Associated Press)

London, October 21.—The coal strike situation took an unexpected and grave turn this afternoon when the railway men and transport workers announced they would strike in sympathy with the miners unless negotiations between the government and miners were reopened this week.

The railroad men's delegates issued an ultimatum to the government that all members would cease work Sunday at midnight unless the strike was settled or negotiations which would effect a settlement be begun by Saturday.

Pressure is being exerted by the trade union congress and the parliamentary committee of the labor men to force the government to waive all prior considerations and call its own and the miners' representatives together immediately.

The government is understood to be standing firm on the ground that any increase in wages must have reference to increased production but is willing to reopen the negotiations if the miners recognize this principle.

(By Associated Press)

London, October 21.—Official confirmation came from two sources this morning of the reports that Lord Mayor MacSwiney of Cork had been fed during a period of unconsciousness.

The bulletin of the Irish Self Determination League dealing with the condition of the Lord Mayor on the 20th day announced prison doctors had forced meat juice into MacSwiney's mouth during a fit of delirium which the prisoner suffered last night and which continued this afternoon.

From the government side it was stated that the Lord Mayor had been fed last night. It was explained there that the prison doctors were under instructions to use any possible means to keep him alive.

This afternoon's bulletin stated the Lord Mayor remained in a delirious condition, at times being violent. His limbs, it was said, would spasmodically move all the time. He fails to recognize any of his relatives.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., October 21.—Three men were killed early today at the plant of the Electric Bleaching Gas Company when one of the tanks used in the process of manufacturing chlorine gas exploded. One side of the building was blown out.

Chlorine gas fumes were so dense after the explosion that work of extricating bodies from the debris was made difficult.

HARDING REPLIES TO GOVERNOR COX

(By Associated Press)

Jackson, O., October 20.—Replying to Governor Cox's charges of inconsistency of the league of nations issue, Senator Harding offered in a speech here today to "give a reward to anyone who would produce specific evidences of a change of position since he accepted the Republican nomination for the presidency."

Mr. Harding also asserted that if he had no specific plan for a world association, the same was true of Governor Cox, who had not told the people what reservation to the Versailles covenant he was willing to take.

(By Associated Press)

Wilmington, Del., October 21.—An enthusiastic reception was given here today to Governor Cox. His league of nations preaching was applauded warmly here, one of the greatest munitions centers during the war.

Every nook of the theater where the Governor spoke this morning was filled and hundreds of persons struggled vainly to enter.

There were hisses and boos from the audience for Senator Lodge's name when Governor Cox reiterated that the senator was "the basest conspirator in all the history of humanity of the world."

More hisses and some groans were the demonstration against Senator Harding when the Governor named his opponent as among the signers of the "round robin."

The incident halted the Governor's speech momentarily.

That Senator Harding should give the American people the name of the person toward to have asked him to lead the way to a new fraternity was asserted by Governor Cox.

The Governor reiterated that "the greatest business depression" in the nation's history would follow refusal to enter the league. Probably the most prolonged applause was given the Governor's statement of his attitude toward the Irish question.

At Philadelphia this morning where his train waited for an hour there was an emphatic protest over the railroad officials' order to remove the American flag from the governor's rear platform. The protest against its removal caused the railroad officials to drop their objection.

WANDERER DECLARES

ALLEGES VIOLENCE

(By Associated Press)

Chicago, October 20.—Carl Wanderer, testifying in his own defense in the trial for the murder of his wife, today declared he was innocent and repudiated the signed statement in which he confessed slaying his wife, Ruth, their unborn child and a vagabond he said he hired to stage a mimic holdup.

He said the confession was wrong from him by "bullying and violence." He was beaten and mauled until he confessed, he testified, adding that one officer broke a bone in his foot.

Before Wanderer took the stand, Dr. William Hickson, head of the psychopathic hospital, testified the defendant was insane and had the mind of a ten year old child.

ISSUE STATEMENT ON AILMENT AMONG LOCAL SWINE HERDS

An ailment among swine in the county has grasped the attention of the farmers and precautions are being taken against its spread.

While not alarming the situation has been taken up by the Fayette Farm Bureau and the following statement has been given out:

"Associated with this season of the year, and the gathering of the bumper corn crop, the farmer feeder is called upon to worry over his feeding problems, and this time the feeder hog appears to demand considerable attention.

"The general practice in this County of treating hogs has no doubt done much to check the old time terror of hog cholera. But other harrasing troubles continue to appear this year. In spite of the delightful weather a form of pneumonia has appeared to develop under many different conditions. "In the last few weeks the State Veterinarian has not only visited the county himself but has had representatives on the ground almost constantly, watching the situation as they are anxious to co-operate in any way possible with the feeders and local veterinarians to control the situation.

"There are some herds in the territory that undoubtedly give evidences of cholera, but post mortem of sick hogs in different sections furnish evidence of affected lungs showing that trouble is not an intestinal one. Good nursing, change of environment, shade in the heat of the day, substituting grass for corn temporarily, avoiding straw ricks are all safe steps to be taken. Feeders with hogs are urged in the case of suspicious symptoms to call a veterinarian or if they will communicate with the Farm Bureau Office effort will be made to advise them in a workable way."

STATE BANKERS SHOW INDIGNATION

(By Associated Press)

Washington, October 21. —While a survey of the financial policies of the government by Secretary Houston drew the attention of delegates at the general session of the American Bankers' Association convention, state bankers in their section meeting which followed brought administration of the federal reserve system under fire.

They adopted resolutions "condemning methods employed by the board" in its relations with state banks which are not members of the reserve system.

Indignation against the board's ruling compelling the collection of checks and remittance of the face amount at par was freely expressed.

I spare no one, and I find my victims among the rich and the poor alike; the young and old, the strong and the weak. Widows and orphans know me. I loom up to such proportions that I cast my shadow over every field of labor from the turning of a grindstone to the moving of every train. I am relentless. I am everywhere—in the home, on the street, in the factory, at railroad crossings, and on the sea. I bring sickness degradation and deaths, and yet few seek to avoid me. I destroy, crush and maim. I give nothing, but take all. I am your worst enemy.

One hundred New Holland citizens signed petition asking leniency from the court and sentence was lessened it is understood, through this action.

GRIM REAPER FELS STURDY OLD PIONEER

In the death of Mr. Christian Grove which occurred at 8:00 o'clock, Thursday evening at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William E. Sturgeon, in South Main street, another sturdy old oak in the forest of early Fayette county pioneers has fallen. For eighty-five years Mr. Grove has been part of this community and, rugged and kindly, defied the oncoming years with remarkable vitality. His death will be learned with great regret, especially in the Sugar Grove neighborhood, with which he had been specially identified.

Last Friday Mr. Grove suffered a stroke of paralysis, which at his age, was the beginning of the end.

Five children survive, Mrs. J. H. Curtis, of Cleveland; Mrs. John Poulk of Greenfield; Mrs. Wm. E. Sturgeon, the devoted daughter with whom he made his home in this city, and Mrs. Aleck Markley, of Canton.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 10:30 a. m. in the Sugar Grove church and burial will be made in the Sugar Grove cemetery.

Rev. Moffett will have the funeral in charge assisted by Rev. K. B. Alexander.

GRIPPING PLAY AT PALACE THEATER

One of the big photo dramas of the season, "The Price of Redemption" is delighting packed houses at the Palace theater Thursday and Friday. "The Price of Redemption" is a screen adaptation of I. A. R. Wylie's famous novel, "The Temple of Dawn" and provides the popular star, Bert Lytell, with a powerful vehicle, suitable to his great dramatic talent.

Mr. Lytell appears as a young Englishman who first distinguishes himself as a military hero, and then sinks to the depths of degradation, only finally to redeem himself through the love of a little child. It was a gripping character study that the young Metro star presented—winning and absorbing in the sheer appeal of its charm and dramatic power. Those present who remembered Mr. Lytell in "The Right of Way" and in "Alias Jimmy Valentine" were doubly pleased at this amazing demonstration of the young star's versatility in character portrayal.

The story of "The Price of Redemption" is that of Leigh Dering, a young English army officer, who saves the besieged garrison of Akbar from a native uprising and afterwards marries a rich girl in London, only to find then that he does not love her. Assuming the crime of another, he leaves London, returns to India where he abandons himself to drink and drugs. There, some time later, his wife, now married to another, finds him, and it is through the love of their little child that Dering redeems himself and wins again to mastery.

MOVIES TO BE THE "TEXT BOOKS"

Philadelphia—Motion pictures will eventually displace many text books in the public schools, predicts Louis Nusbaum, associate superintendent of the schools in this city.

Thirty public schools here now have motion picture machines and rent films from the film exchanges for use in their lessons.

"More can be learned in five minutes with an instructive specially prepared motion picture film than in an hour of study from the text book" said Mr. Nusbaum in urging the idea before the property committee of the Board of Education. "Motion picture machines would help out in the text book shortage."

Lloyd George's Contention

Warning by labor leaders, in Parliament, that unless the wage increases demanded were granted the striking coal miners would be joined by other industrial workers, especially those operating the transportation lines of the empire, has not changed Lloyd George's plans.

Great Britain's premier has taken the position that neither the miners nor any other body of laborers, organized or unorganized, is now in a position to force compliance with its demands for higher wages without guaranteeing something of value in return and assuming some obligation on its own account.

The time has come, Premier Lloyd George evidently thinks, when a mere temporary adjustment of labor disputes will not avail and that the settlement of the present difficulty must be mutually binding and permanent.

He is absolutely correct in the position he assumes and the world hopes, and believes too, that the vigorous Welshman, who has done so much as Great Britain's leading statesman in times of storm, will succeed in his determination to settle the strike right this time.

If the miners are to have an increased wage they must guarantee production else the increased wage can't be paid.

We, Great Britain and the rest of the world, have been drifting along too easily, consenting to all demands made by labor and insisting on no obligation in return.

Paul Dye's Speech

Paul F. Dye, the young man who is asking the voters of this, the seventh, Congressional district to send him to Congress to represent them has visited Fayette county—made his political debut, so to speak, before Fayette county folks.

He spoke at Memorial Hall Wednesday evening and before the school of citizenship prior to the mass meeting.

He is all right. He measures up. He will do in every way. He embodies, in his vigorous manhood, his sterling integrity, his keen mind, his sympathy with, and interest in, the cause of the people, just what the nation needs in the halls of Congress—more vigorous young men fresh from the ranks of the people, men who have not become hardened politicians and chronic office holders.

Listening to Paul F. Dye—watching him in action as he addressed a Fayette county audience—it is not difficult to understand why the statesmen of the world underestimated the possibilities of the young American soldiers in the war.

Paul F. Dye is just as full of possibilities for good as our representative in Congress as he, and the thousands of others like him, were when they drove the Huns back through the Argonne Forest in 1918 and brought the war to an end.

The majority of 8,000 behind which Dr. Fess hopes, for the fifth consecutive time, to edge into Congress can easily be swept away if the voters of the district remember their promises of two short years ago.

Paul F. Dye won hosts of friends by his speeches to Fayette county folks. He is a straightforward young American who is entitled to our votes for every good reason.

Changes

When we pause in the all important work of rearranging our affairs long enough to take a survey of conditions at present existing, and make comparisons with conditions existing only a few weeks ago, we cannot be unmindful that changes, and pronounced changes too, have occurred and are occurring every day.

Prices of commodities of all sorts, with one or two glaringly apparent exceptions, one of which is coal, have at last, with certainty begun traveling the down grade.

The shift of our business and industrial machines, however, into intermediate, so that we make the descent in safety, is being accomplished with as little grinding and disturbance as was the shift from low to high as we went swinging up the grade of war time scale of prices.

Both changes, the one already accomplished with so little commotion and the one now under way, are proof of the marvelous ability of the American people to adapt themselves and their affairs to changed conditions.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THEN AND NOW

A country boy, barfooted, poor, alone,
Looked far across the summer's golden day

Toward the city's pompous, busy way,
Where wealth and splendor shone.

But he was poor, and every fierce desire
Was hushed, and yet you curling smoke

Within his soul Ambition's dream awoke.

To set his heart afire.

The glad years sped; Ambition had won her way.

The busy street gave him her wealth; and Fame

Showed him the heights, and there his shining name.

Written in gold, to live beyond his day.

But with it all the vale of children's joy.

The fragrant hills, the waving fields of June,

Were ever with him whistling some old tune;

Somehow he longed once more to be a boy.

MANY OHIO FARMERS FORM CORPORATIONS UNDER THE NEW LAW

Ohio farmers have formed several corporations during the past few months designed to aid in the marketing of their products and purchase of farm supplies in wholesale fashion. Incorporation has been made possible by the passage of the co-operative law at the last session of the legislature which permits their formation, without capital stock and for non-profit purposes. "The one fundamental idea in co-operation" says Z. B. Wallin, marketing specialist of the Ohio State University "is that a service be performed which will be mutually advantageous to each member of the group. Under such an arrangement no profit arises because the aim is to carry on the enterprise at cost.

"There should be no difficulty in financing an organization of considerable size under this law. This may be done by membership fees and dues or by borrowing money as an association with the idea of paying off the loan by fixing a definite charge on units of produce marketed or manufactured. The fact that the association is incorporated and has legal status makes it possible to negotiate loans through banks or through other sources. This arrangement would have a decided advantage where the needs for funds vary greatly through the season. This would be true in moving certain crops where funds could be borrowed for a short period.

"As security for the association's note in negotiating such a loan each member can be required upon joining the association to sign a demand promissory note in favor of the association. The combined notes of the membership can then be pooled as collateral.

"It might be interesting to note that this method of financing co-operative associations is very common in European countries and has also met with success in this country. No doubt when the purpose of this law is more clearly understood farmers will take more advantage of it."

'S MATTER ANYHOW

A certain buyer upon receiving a request to send a check to cover his bill, replied as follows:

"For the following reasons I am unable to send the check asked for: I have been held up, held down, send-baged, walked on, sat on, flattened out and squeezed. First by the United States government, for Federal War Tax, Excess Profits Tax, Liberty Loan Bonds, Thrift Stamps, Capital Stock Tax, Merchant's License and Auto Tax and by every society and organization that the inventive mind of man can invent to extract what I may or may not possess.

"I have been solicited by the Society of John the Baptist, the G. A. R., The Women's Relief, The Navy League, The Red Cross, The Black Cross, The Double Cross, The Children's Home, the Dorcas Society, the Y. M. C. A., the Y. W. C. A., the Boy Scouts the Jewish Relief and every hospital in town. Then on top of it all came the Associated Charities and the Salvation Army.

"The Government has so governed my business that I don't know who owns it. I am inspected, suspected, examined and re-examined, informed, required and commanded, so I don't know who I am or why I am here. All I know is that I am supposed to be an inexhaustible supply of money for every known need, desire or hope of the human race. And because I will not sell all I have and go out and beg borrow or steal money to give away, I have been cursed, discussed, boycotted, talk to, talked about, lied about, held up, hung up, robbed and nearly ruined, and the only reason I am clinging to life is to see what in hell is coming next."—Nesco News.

RANDOM NOTES

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

Mrs. Wert Shoop's charming home was filled with interested women Wednesday afternoon for October meeting of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Presbyterian church, the entertaining hostesses with Mrs. Shoop, Mesdames J. M. Willis, J. A. Crawford, Josephine Kerr, Frank M. Fullerton, H. T. Wilkin, Lizzie Buck, J. F. Adams, H. L. Stitt, Mary Kessler, J. B. Butcher, J. M. Miller, Tom Grove, John Hicks, Thomas S. Pinkerton, Amy Hudson, Arta Sutherland, Mary Cutting, Miss Georgia Davenport.

Mrs. Buck and Miss Davenport were the donors of gorgeous flowers, roses, carnations and chrysanthemums which were gracefully placed in the room.

Mrs. Austin F. Hopkins, President, conducted the opening session, with an unusual amount of business and the election of officers.

The election resulted as follows: President, Mrs. Hopkins; First Vice, Mrs. G. M. Ustiek; Second Vice, Mrs. Harriett Woodward; Third Vice, Mrs. A. J. Walker, Secretary, Mrs. O. K. Probasco; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. L. H. Goddard; Secretary of Literature and Study Class, Mrs. Fritz Meiers; Treasurer, Mrs. Charles Gage; Secretary of Young People, Miss Mary Pyley; Study Class Leader, Mrs. Lulu H. Robinson; New Era Representative, Mrs. Cary Persinger.

Mrs. John Wilson was program leader, the subjects "Alaska" and "India."

Mrs. Nettie Chaffin presented a splendid paper, showing an immense amount of study on "Alaska's Development."

Much literature has been put out about this marvellous country, with only 40,000 inhabitants, but its resources so valuable that it has paid for itself many times since its purchase and yet many of these resources are not yet developed.

Mrs. Chaffin emphasized the necessity of Alaska becoming a land of homes and the important part Christianity plays in building homes. The question is whether people will be willing to establish homes in that far north climate?

The Missionary Boards are working in harmony with the government. The history of Christian progress has its discouraging phases.

It is so easy for missionaries to fall into the habits of natives. The Presbyterians were the first to enter Alaska and have eleven large missions. A government school is in every tribe.

Witchcraft and medicine men are a thing of the past.

Mrs. Chaffin closed with a beautiful poem, "A Tribute to Mother" by Alaska's poet Robert Service.

Mrs. Will Sprenger made a most interesting talk on "India," vividly portraying its terrible conditions in startling word pictures.

The native of India was compared to an orphan child and India cited as a seething cauldron, with only a small part educated and very few prepared for leadership. The English must needs be very careful of their missions will be closed.

While the caste system is horrible, yet some good is now coming out of it for whole castes are accepting Christianity and they are coming in groups.

The hospitals are doing great work. Patients are clad in gay colors and there are apartments provided so that the entire family may stay with the patient. Mrs. Sprenger closed with an effective Hindoo poem.

The afternoon's pleasure was increased by Victrola music and the serving of a delicious collation during the social hour.

Mrs. James Morrow and daughter, Mrs. John Ott, of Waukegan, Ill., were out of town guests.

Mrs. Glenn Smith of Delaware invited a dozen women in, Wednesday afternoon entertaining in honor of her birthday.

Purple faces and fall roses were used in decorating the home, and at the close of pleasurable afternoon the hostess served dainty refreshments.

A straw vote was taken, resulting in nine for Cox and three for Harding.

Organized at Springfield in 1894, the twenty-fifth annual convention in Columbus the past week was perhaps the most notable convention ever held by the Ohio Federation of Women's Clubs. It was the verdict of all club women that the Columbus program could not have been surpassed in arrangement and wealth of material by any state federation in the entire United States. The hostess city left not a stone unturned to make it the really great event it was—nothing was forgotten, nothing omitted. Club women from all parts of Ohio will long remember the warm hospitality of Columbus women and the graciousness with which they received every guest.

General Federation Home.

Mrs. William H. Sharp, Columbus, president of the Ohio federation, has been highly honored by the General federation board. She has been named a member of a committee of three to select a suitable General federation club home in Washington, if it is deemed advisable to do so. A club home for all federated club women throughout the world is the hope of the General Federation of Women's Clubs board of directors. For the present national headquarters will be maintained at No. 1410 H street, Washington. For the time being it is to be the repository of records and a distributing center of literature and general information.

Ohio Federation Notes.

Mrs. John MacKee, Springfield, federation art chairman for Ohio, also has been honored by the General federation. She has been made chairman of civic art, city planning, civic architecture and war memorials.

The Akron and Summit County Federation of Women's Clubs held its first meeting of the club year October 7 when plans were laid for a membership tea October 23 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Ramond. Through this membership tea it is expected to bring the federation there to at least 1,500. It has been decided that $100 a year is to be contributed by this federation to a young woman to help her prepare for missionary work. The federation also decided to contribute monthly toward the education of a French girl and $20 yearly to the Katherine Claypool and Malona Harris memorials. Mrs. Silas Hurin, of Toledo, gave a talk along educational lines.

Music Chairman's Message.

Mrs. Warren P. Williamson, Youngstown, Ohio federation music chairman, has a splendid message for Ohio music lovers on the heels of the Columbus state convention, which was marked by successful in many ways this year, but in none any more so than in its music department. Here is Mrs. Williamson's message:

"I wish to extend to you my pledge for co-operation in music work which is being so extensively carried out in our clubs today. My ideal for the music work of the federation is to make music a vital part of the daily life of every community in the state."

Mrs. Williamson has chosen for her music committee for the state Mrs. Flora D. Price, Kenton; Mrs. J. W. Smith, Elyria; Mrs. W. P. Engle, Defiance; Mrs. E. F. Babbitt, Columbus; Mrs. J. S. Moore, Cleveland; Mrs. Ralph A. Herbruck, Dayton; Mrs. Allen Jordan, Portsmouth; Mrs. John Turner, Martins Ferry; and Mrs. Fred M. Baird, New Lexington.

Mrs. George Elliott McCormick.

The Woman's Literary Club of Bloomingburg was charmingly entertained at the home of Mrs. Ed Klever in Bloomingburg Wednesday afternoon, Mesdames James Perill, Cary S. Parrett, Quincy Kindaid and William Parker, of Columbus forming with Mrs. Klever a quintet of most hospitable hostesses.

The beautiful old Colonial home was radiant with a wealth of Autumn flowers colorful and decorative.

Victrola music and a particularly delicious luncheon were features of the afternoon's entertainment, enjoyed by thirty women.

Among the guests were Mrs. D. S. Creamer, Mrs. Crockett and Mrs. James Millikan of Columbus.

The regular business meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Church of Christ was held at the home of Mrs. C. P. West on Temple street, Wednesday afternoon with thirty-one members responding to Roll Call.

There was a very enjoyable program consisting of a piano solo by Miss Stella West, readings by Mrs. Mae Lemons and Mrs. Walter Moss, and vocal trio by Mrs. Orland Troops, Mrs. J. C. Michaels and Mrs. H. C. Conwell.

The next meeting will be the quarterly social session.

Mrs. Alec Shipper of Hamilton, O., is visiting her brother, Mr. Frank Cox and family.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Harbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Haines motored to the Circleville pumpkin show, Thursday evening.

Messrs. Roy A. Tharp, James McDonald, R. Burris Tharp and Thomas H. Craig Jr., motored to Mt. Sterling Wednesday night with Paul H. Dye of Urbana, Democratic candidate for Congress, who addressed a Democratic meeting at that place, following his speech in this city.

Mr. J. Edmund Smith and Mr. George Fultz attended the pumpkin show at Circleville, Wednesday night.

Miss Mary Craig joined Miss Miriam Fite in Columbus, Wednesday for the day.

TROUSER COSTUME FOR BOUDOIR WEAR

Chenel, the great French designer, evidently thinks it time for women to adopt the bifurcated garment, for he has designed this boudoir costume of brocade and plain crepe de chine with real pantaloons. Over them falls a graceful loose coat of jade green crepe de chine with bands of bead embroidery trimming it. It makes a striking costume for leisure hours.

Mr. James Ford was a business visitor in Columbus Thursday.

Miss Jessie Morris spent Wednesday in Columbus going on to Westerville Thursday to visit Mrs. John Baker.

Mrs. Lillie Breach and daughter, Miss Blanche returned Wednesday from a week's visit with relatives and friends at Marietta, Warren, and Elba, Ohio, the girlhood home of Mrs. Breach.

Mrs. Theodore Fry of Denver, Colo., is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Frank Cox and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Kuecht Sr. daughter Miss Marie, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Tillis were motoring guests in Cincinnati, Thursday.

Mr. Mortimer W. Claegens went to Columbus, Thursday, to be with his mother, Mrs. James W. Long of Springfield, who undergoes a throat operation at Mt. Carmel Hospital.

Miss Mary Erskine, Miss Lucile Woods, and Miss Edna Simons went to Circleville, Thursday evening, to be the guests of Miss Maxine Snider until Sunday. Miss Erskine and Miss Woods will go on to Chillicothe to spend the coming week.

Dr. and Mrs. Grant Marchant, of Millersburg, left Wednesday for Palm Beach, Fla., where they will spend the winter and join their daughter, Miss Iris, who holds a position there.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Townsley have moved from Washington Avenue to the Allen Hegler homestead on Circle Avenue and Main street.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred M. Mark daughters, Misses Nell and Mary Louise, and son, Frederick, Jr., Misses Virginia Elites and Mildred Fisher, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hughey, daughter, Susan Jane, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Murray, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Mark, Mrs. Amanda Mark, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Wike, Mrs. Eliza Vaddell, Mrs. Ada Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. E. Mark, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Pine, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Inskeep, son, George, and daughter Jean, and Mrs. George Inskeep composed a motoring party to Fort Ancient, the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Penn, attended the Harding Barbeque in Jackson Wednesday.

Mrs. Leek Shoop, Mrs. Charles Swope and daughter, Mrs. Thomas Joyce, motored down from Columbus Wednesday for the Hegler sale.

ATHLETICS TO FACE MUCH STRONGER TEAM

In the second game of the Washington Athletics series the local club will have some stiffer opposition than they had last Sunday, according to word received from the Sabina management. Manager Sears has notified the Athletics to be sure and bring their regular line-up. It is understood the Sabina bunch will be strengthened.

WILL GET REVENGE FOR 'CONSOLATION' GAME LAST YEAR

To get revenge for a severance of athletic relations which caused Xenia High School to be excluded from Washington High School's list of opponents in any sport because of the cancellation of a football game last year the same day the game was to be played, will be the work of Central High Friday afternoon, according to the Xenia Gazette, which says: "Central High School football team following the drubbing handed them by Troy High last week will meet West Alexandria High at Dodds Field, this city, Friday afternoon.

"The blue and white footballers have had much of the conceit taken out of them by the last two defeats they have suffered at the hands of Wilmington and Troy, and it is thought that the team will come nearer this Friday to putting up in the class of ball that won for them in the Hillsboro and Greenfield clashes.

"In playing West Alexandria, the locals have an old score to settle. Last year, at the tag end of a bad season, West Alexandria was booked here the day before the Washington C. H. game. The contest was rated as more or less of a consolation game, as a victory over the Alexandria pigskinners would considerably help the showing of the team for that season. However, the visitors turned the tables on the locals, defeating them in an exceptionally hard game, and making it impossible for the locals to fill their engagement with Washington C. H. on the following day."

DEATH SUMMONS GEORGE PURSELL

Wednesday evening, a few minutes before ten o'clock, death summoned Mr. George Pursell, 72, at his home on Yeoman street.

Hardly more than a week ago Mr. Pursell became ill and he grew slowly worse.

Until his illness he had been very active for a man of his advanced years. He retired from the active pursuits of life several years ago.

He is survived by a wife and two daughters, Mrs. Grace Rogers, of Columbus, and Mrs. Alie Everhart, of Dayton.

Funeral services will be held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at the home with Rev. Karl B. Alexander of Grace Church officiating. Interment will follow in Washington cemetery.

MORE SOLDIERS AT CAMP SHERMAN

Tuesday afternoon about 4 o'clock the Third Battalion of the Third Inf., reached Camp Sherman, 4 officers and 96 men strong. This makes the last detachment of the Third to reach camp, and for the first time since 1902 the entire regiment is once more assembled at the same post.

Immediately after the last battalion arrived, the work of placing their equipment in their new barracks was started and before night they were again settled in what is scheduled to be their permanent quarters for some time to come.

The Third Battalion also brought with them twenty head of horses. All of the animals of the Third Infantry have been placed under observation and quarantine, being corralled by themselves until all danger of any infection is done away with.—Chillicothe Gazette.

GOV. COX CALLS ON ROOT TO RETRACT

(By Associated Press)
Bridgeport, Conn., Oct. 20.—Governor Cox of Ohio today sent a telegram to Elihu Root asking him to "correct" what the Democratic candidate declared was a "false" statement in Mr. Root's address yesterday regarding the Governor position upon the league of nations issue.

The Governor denied Mr. Root's statement that he demands the league "just as Mr. Wilson negotiated it" and called upon Mr. Root for a retraction.

The candidate made ten speeches today.

At Hartford, the Governor was called upon to speak to a large overflow meeting. Large cheering crowds greeted the Governor throughout his final New England journey today.

A special applause was given "his frequent statement of his plan to bring the cause of Irish independence before the conscience and bar of public opinion of the world."

The Governor's train passed through a few towns where no stops were scheduled but where crowds, one with a band and torches cheered the passing cars.

MAN UP A POLE MYSTERY SOLVED

Sheriff N. B. Hall was hurriedly summoned to a point on the Jamestown pike outside this city a night or two ago, by the information that there was a man on top of a telephone pole, apparently bent on cutting the wires for some evil purpose, or probably suffering mentally.

When Sheriff Hall reached scene and the driver of his car stopped, he called to the man up the pole to come down.

"Wait a minute!" exclaimed the man, and proceeded to talk to some unseen person.

Just as the Sheriff was convinced that he must go up the pole and bring the man down—a very difficult undertaking, he agreed—the man was heard to say "good-bye" and started to climb down.

It was then that Sheriff Hall discovered the mysterious stranger was a line man who had been engaged in telephone work in this county, and that he had been upon the pole, connected with a trunk wire and enjoying a little conversation with friends in an adjoining state.

"Saves heavy telephone tolls" he explained.

YOUTHS ADMIT STEALING METERS

Two young men of Bowersville admitted their guilt to Chief of Police D. L. Moore Thursday when brought here in connection with an investigation of the theft of several meters from automobiles, and it is believed that sufficient evidence was obtained to uncover other thefts of similar nature.

During Fall Festival week in this city, meters disappeared from automobiles and it was finally traced by the police to Bowersville. The Bowersville marshal made investigation and located three of the missing meters.

They were brought to this city and identified by the owners. The men were released pending further investigation.

It was announced at the mayor's office that no affidavits had been filed and no names were obtainable.

PASSAGE FROM SEA TO LAKES IS URGED

(By Associated Press)

New York, October 20.—A deep seawaterway from the Great Lakes through the St. Lawrence River was urged as an economic necessity by men of national prominence today at a hearing before the international joint commission.

Herbert Hoover was the principal speaker for the proponents of the project. His arguments were enforced by William C. Redfield, former secretary of commerce; J. R. Howard, president of the American Farm Bureau Federation and others.

The proponents of the project argued it would reduce the cost and expedite the movement of American grain exports and thereby widen the farmer's margin of saving so that he could utilize the money in increasing the productivity of his soil.

Unless this is done, declared Mr. Hoover, America's exports of food products would continue to diminish until they cease ten years from now. Mr. Howard said the farmers are behind any project for better transportation.

COMING HERE TO ESTABLISH CLASSES

Prof. W. M. Berry, Superintendent of the C. N. & I. Department of Wilberforce University with his corps of teachers who are now doing extension work in our neighboring counties, will be here this evening for the purpose of establishing a University center. There will be offered courses in Millinery, Dressmaking, Domestic Science, Book Keeping, Stenography, Carpentry, Automobiles, Plumbing, etc. The people of Washington will have the privilege of taking any work offered in that department of the university. The courses are absolutely free. The aim of this department is to bring the college to the door of every man, woman and child, so that all may have advantage of its training. It is hoped that a large number will be out to meet Prof. Berry tonight. The meeting will be held at the A. M. E. Church, at seven-thirty. Signed, C. S. SPIVEY.

Mr. Paul F. Dye, of Urbana, Democratic speaker, made a brief address complimenting the women on their organization, and gave a short explanation of the soldiers' compensation bill and its provisions. Mrs. M. M. Tully, of Mechanicsburg, followed Mr. Dye's speech with a talk.

A number of the women remained for the ballot demonstration, the sample ballot being used.

SAYS AMERICA WILL ALWAYS DO HER FULL SHARE

Somerset, Ky.—Since Jefferson sent American ships of war to the Mediterranean to suppress the Barbary pirates, to the day when her sons fought on the fields of France to suppress the German menace, "America has always done its full part in world service and it always will," declared Governor Calvin Coolidge, Republican nominee for the Vice Presidency, in an address here recently.

Governor Coolidge said he had come to Kentucky to support Governor Morrow "in his appeal to the nation to return to a government under the constitution, to end the waste and extravagance of the administration, to discharge our duty to the world under an independent union but, first of all to discharge our duty to America."

He eulogized the names of Washington, "a son of Virginia" and Lincoln, "a son of Kentucky" saying that "wherever men name the glory of America and the glory of civilization, these names stand first." Henry Clay he described as "the matchless old Kentuckian," who had contributed much to the progress and prosperity of the young republic.

T. B. PREVALENT AMONG GREEKS PHYSICIANS FEW

Athens. (By Mail).—Tuberculosis is more prevalent in Greece than in any European country for which reliable figures are available, with the possible exception of Serbia. There is no governmental or private program for the control of the disease. The number of physicians in proportion to the population is one to every 1300.

In the city of Athens the death-rate from tuberculosis of the lungs is 294 per 100,000 of population, which is about twice as high as rate in United States. The other forms of the disease also are present, making the total tuberculosis death-rate 365 per 100,000 of population. One death in every six is due to tuberculosis.

To deal with the disease the existing agencies are very inadequate. There is little or no hospital provision for the care of the bulk of the population of 5,000,000. There are less than a score of general hospitals in the country.

There is also an alarming prevalence of typhoid fever, which at times rises to the proportion of an epidemic. Even in the larger cities such as Athens the typhoid death-rate is strikingly high. In the last three-year period for which statistics are available the rate was 59 per 100,000 of population, about five times as high as the rate in the United States.

CURFEW RULE AT ASHTABULA

Ashtabula, Ohio.—Soon after Halloween Ashtabula youngsters will be under curfew rule.

An ordinance passed by council provides that minors will not be permitted on the streets or in public places after 9:30 p. m. from April 1 to November 1; and after 8:30 p. m. from November 1 to April 1. Newsboys, messengers and others who have legitimate errands and minors with their parents are excepted.

Councilman Wallen said, "we have laws to take care of our chickens, pigs, etc., but we are letting our children run wild."

PERTINENT PARAGRAPHS.

There is at least one thing that may be said in favor of football. No body has to play it.

Because the average man just has to make some sort of fool of himself he might just as well be in love.

For the kind of advertising copy that means more than just the filling of space with words. Most of those who put their advertising problems up to us do it on faith. They buy something sight-unseen. But they have faith because—

We've the Ideas
We've the Training
We've the Experience

Our training and our experience covers several years. We know what an advertisement will look like before it is printed, and can intelligently advise with them, because we know the printing game from the front door to the back, and around.

Eggleston C-716. The Colonial house is characterized by simplicity in the composition of its roof, walls and openings; by perfect symmetry, and by a well formed roof with a narrow cornice. This design is an ideal house for a corner lot.

Newcastle C-717. The English house has a steep roof that provides a good attic. Openings are placed where inside uses demand; casement sash and half timber are used quite frequently.

Ramona C-718. In the Western house you find wide eaves with an open cornice and rafter ends exposed. Perhaps a combination of materials will be used. The exterior presents a rugged appearance but the Western house always has good proportions.

Which House Shall It Be?

THIS is the most perplexing question that you will ever have to solve if you are thinking of building a home. There are many things to be considered when selecting the home to fit your needs. First, the plan must be right; second, the design or exterior appearance must be attractive and in good taste.

In deciding upon the plan, the size house you will require or can afford, must be considered; the house will have to fit and look well upon the site on which it will be built; it must be adequate for this climate; it must harmonize with its surroundings, and its living rooms must command the best possible view; and last, but by no means least in the consideration of the plan is "the lay of the land"; you don't want the porch where it will cut off desired light from the living rooms, and you do want the bedrooms to get the benefit of prevailing summer breezes at night so that they will be more comfortable.

Perhaps the matter of the design of the exterior will be left to someone who specializes in that very important subject—an architect. Or perhaps you will select a design prepared by some known authority in matters of domestic architecture.

At any rate, don't fall into the easy way of saying, "I want a house like So-and-so's, only a little different." Get something entirely different and at the same time a house that is in good taste!

Here are two very important facts about the well designed house:

*It is economical of materials, and
It is easy to build.*

On the well designed house you are saved the expense of useless brackets, huge dormers, large porch posts and things of that kind, and because it is of simple, straightforward composition as regards its walls and roof, it is an easy house for the carpenter to construct.

There are about four types of houses that are recognized by architects as being suitable for this country: the Colonial, the English, the Western, and the Southern, as illustrated here.

Our service will enable you to select the right plan and the right design to fit your needs, from a large number of houses designed and planned especially for the users of Curtis Woodwork, by Trowbridge & Ackerman, Architects, of New York City.

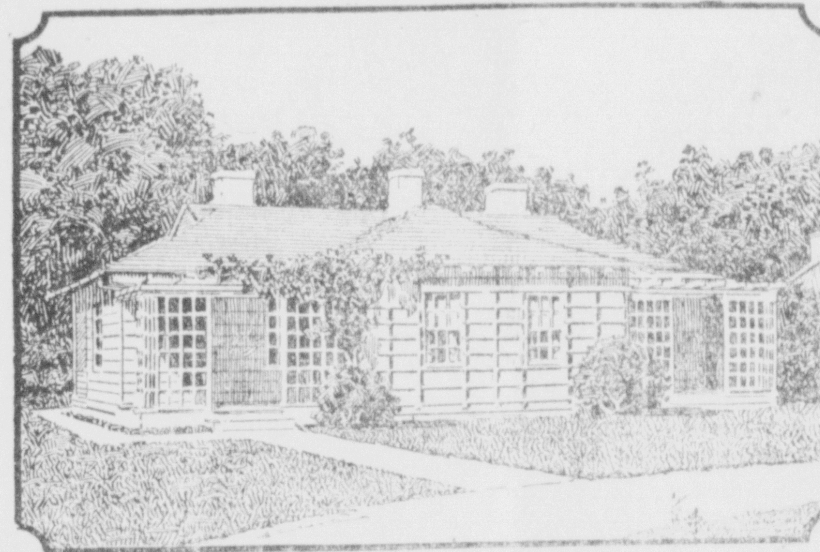

This service covers 206 houses of from three to eight rooms, and 20 houses especially designed for farm use. These houses are divided in the ratio of about three to one as regards two-story and one-story sizes.

The 226 plans have been developed from 59 basic plans, (a basic plan is a given number of rooms arranged in a given manner). Practically every plan is shown in at least three architectural types.

Where could you find a wider choice than we offer you in our 226 plans in four architectural types? Certainly in this service you should be able to find your ideal home. Come in and let us help you select a house that will fill your needs.

Or, if you prefer, and will tell us the size house you are interested in, we will have a portfolio of home designs sent to you. Then when you select your home we will tell you what it will cost, and will furnish complete plans to build it.

LARGE AUDIENCE HEARS PAUL DYE AND MRS. TULLY

Democratic Candidate For Congress Declares His Platform.

League of Nations Discussed in Detail by Mrs. Tully.

Speaking before a capacity audience at Memorial Hall Wednesday evening Mr. Paul F. Dye, of Urbana, Democratic candidate for Congress from the Seventh Congressional District, gave reasons why he should be elected to office vigorously attacked campaign being waged by his Republican opponent, S. D. Fess, and explained in detail the soldier's compensation act.

Memorial Hall was filled with an audience that was composed of as many women as men and divided in Democratic and Republican affiliation. Dye spoke considerably less than an hour, when he had finished Mrs. M. M. Tully, of Mechanicsburg, took the floor in support of Dye and then went into a detailed explanation of the League of Nations.

Hon. J. D. Post, Chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee, presided over the meeting and the speaker was introduced by M. W. Claggen.

In opening his address Mr. Dye declared that he had refrained from making an attack on his opponent in too vigorous manner, but that when Fess had alluded to him in his own home town as the "kindergarten candidate" and other names of equal derision he had believed that it high time to reply in much the same manner.

Dye said that as proof of the fact that the fight was becoming hot Congressman Fess had flooded the district with literature and that one of these cards bore the inscription "earnestly solicit your support." Dye declared this was the first time he had ever done this.

Dye then went to the bottom of the proposed Compensation Act and said that Mr. Fess was making this one of the chief issues of the campaign and that it was his privilege to explain it.

He drew enthusiastic applause when he said that Fess declared him a "young man" and he replied to this that if there were more young men in Congress more might be accomplished.

In closing Dye stated that if he were elected, and that he believed he was going to be, his voice would be heard in the halls of congress before the end of sixty days on the principles for which he was elected.

Mrs. Josephine Kerr, then took the chair and introduced Mrs. M. M. Tully who offered a strong plea for the support of Mr. Dye. She declared that if two years ago when the American Army was fighting on the western front any person, had been told that one of those same soldiers would have to stand before an audience and plead for recognition, the idea would have been declared impossible.

Mrs. Tully inquired of the audience what she should speak on and some one in the audience asked for "The League of Nations." The League in all its departments was discussed and Mrs. Tully took Article Ten for one of the main issues.

In speaking of politics she declared she knew nothing of politics at all but that the women were determined to support the best man and that if the parties wanted the support of the women they had better bring their best material to the front.

YOUR CROP MONEY

You worked hard for it. Now make it work hard for YOU. Like seed sown on barren ground, money invested in ill-considered projects bears a scanty crop.

But money carefully invested in SAFE, SOUND SECURITIES produces a crop that can be counted on. No need for worry there.

And since the highest class of borrowers, from the United States Government down, are paying more for loans than they have for many years, money safely invested now reaps a bigger interest crop than usual.

Reliable investment houses investigate securities from every possible angle before they buy them and offer them to their clients.

The securities we offer have been so investigated. They have passed the judgment borne of twenty years' experience.

SCHOOL PLANS ARE AGREED UPON

Cleveland, Ohio—Under terms of an agreement between Western Reserve University and the Cleveland Board of Education, teachers in Cleveland public schools will have the opportunity of obtaining from the University the degree of bachelor of education.

The course agreed upon by the board and Western Reserve covers four years. Ninety of the 120 hours required for the degree will be given by the Cleveland School of Education and the remaining 30 by the university.

This linking together of a city educational system with a university is believed to be unique in the country. The opportunity thus provided for teachers of Cleveland and vicinity to complete a thorough academic and professional course offers an incentive by which the teaching staff in Cleveland public school will be brought to a position of excellence second to none. Provision is also to be made for courses of graduate character leading to a master's degree.

HILLS PRESENT UNRIVALED BEAUTY

Persons making trips into the hill districts to the south during the past week or ten days have been greatly impressed by the wonderful beauty of the hills, dressed in their varicolored fall robes with a tinge of blue smoke forming the background.

Some of the wooded hill districts present a riot of colors that would challenge the master artist to equal them.

For the next two week many auto parties from this city will be made into the hill counties to enjoy the scenery.

CHURCH SUPPER AND MASQUERADE

The Ladies Aid Society of Union Chapel M. E. Church will give a supper and masquerade at the Yatesville Hall, Friday evening, October 22. All those not masked will be asked to pay a fine.

Come and meet the "Jiggs Family," and other distinguished people you have longed to meet.

The Committee on supper have arranged the following menu: Chicken Patties, Mashed Potatoes, Celery, Fruit Salad, Pumpkin Pie with whipped cream, Coffee.

Proceeds for benefit of church. 247 13

WRAP FOR AFTER THE DINNER HOUR

This velvet wrap for evening wear is rather unusual in effect. The lining is of peach satin and the pretty collar and large kimono like sleeves have an exquisite flower design embroidered in silver. A band of the silver embroidery edges the front opening of the wrap also. It is simple but elegant.

WEATHER BRINGS STRAW HATS OUT

The unseasonably hot weather for this period of the year has forced straw hats from their hiding places, in a number of instances, and these were noticeable on the streets the past day or two.

"It's hot as July or August, and if straw hats are not built for hot weather, then they should not be sold," is the manner in which one man expressed his convictions on wearing a straw hat 35 days after the "straw hat" season closed.

MISLEADING WOMEN DONAHEY CHARGES

(By Associated Press)

Canton, Ohio, October 21.—Charges that Harry L. Davis is trying to mislead the women of Ohio into believing that the former mayor of Cleveland is a friend of woman suffrage were made by State Auditor Vic Donahey in addresses here.

"The fact is that Harry L. Davis never was for granting the women the vote," Donahey said.

The parting that gives us pain often occurs while seated in a dental chair.

When "Gets-It" Comes Corns Go

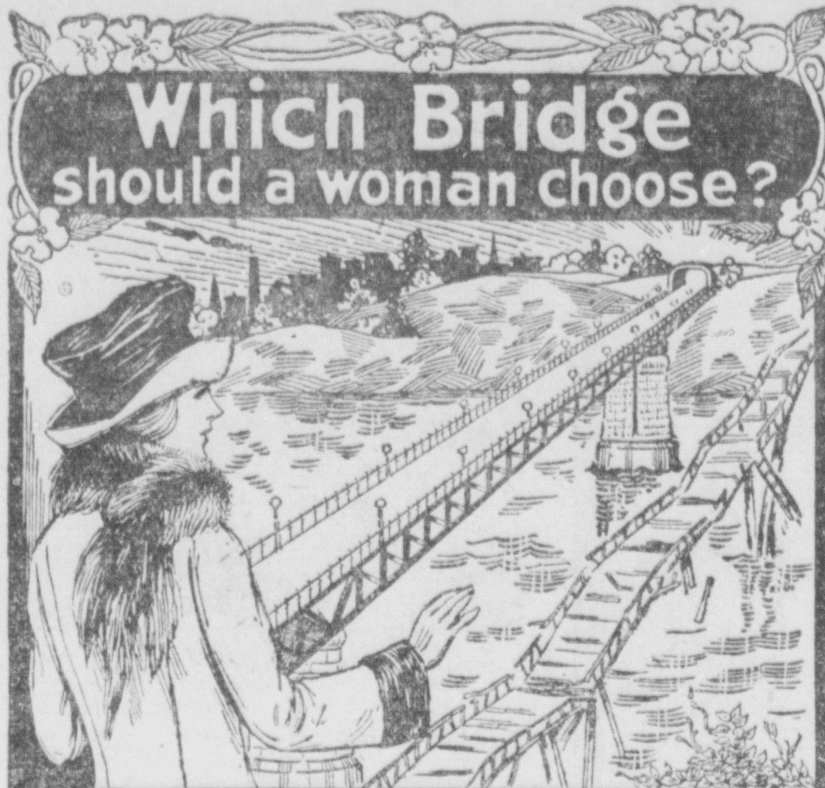

Painless, Sure, Quick is this 2-Drop 2-Seconds Wonder.

There isn't room on the same toe for a corn and two or three drops of "Gets-It," so the corn curls up, shrivels and peels off in your fingers so easily that you are simply astonished, because you can't feel it.

Don't Be a Corn Cripple—Use "Gets-It" You actually wonder whether it can be true—that you went along for months enduring such misery when you could have had such easy and quick relief. Do you doubt? Prove it at our risk. Your money cheerfully refunded if "Gets-It" fails. Be sure you get the genuine. There is nothing else like "Gets-It." Sold by druggists everywhere; costs but a trifle. Sold in Washington C. H. and recommended as the world's best remedy. Brown's Drug Store.

The Weak or the Strong One

If you see before you a strong and safe bridge leading to your goal, would you ignore it and choose some insecure and tottering structure?

If you were offered sure aid in time of trouble would you hesitate to accept it?

The answer is simple—you would choose what all evidence showed to be the safe way—and you would risk nothing in useless experiments.

Why then do some women risk one of their most precious possessions—their health—in trying medicines of unknown value, when everybody knows that the most successful remedy for woman's ills is Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Here is more proof:

Reading, Pa.—"I had organic inflammation, pains in the side and back which were so sharp that they pulled me to my knees, and I could not walk. I had an operation and still I failed, and in the eight years I suffered I had four doctors and none helped me. My mother-in-law advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was then in bed, and after the first bottle I could be out of bed, then I took Vegetable Compound Tablets and Lydia E. Pinkham's Blood Medicine and also used the Sanative Wash. I still take the medicine and am able now to do my own housework. My friends say, 'My! but you look well—what do you do? Who is your doctor?' and there is only one answer, 'Lydia E. Pinkham's medicines.'" —Mrs. Wm. Stein, 550 Douglas Street, Reading, Pa.

Gainesville, Tex.—"For three years I suffered untold agony each month with pains in my side. I found only temporary relief in doctor's medicine or anything else I took until my husband and I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I mentioned it to a neighbor and she told me she had taken it with good results, and advised me to try it. I was then in bed part of the time, and my doctor said I would have to be operated on, but we decided to try the Vegetable Compound, and I also used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I am a dressmaker and am now able to go about my work, and do my household besides. You are welcome to use this letter as a testimonial as I am always glad to speak a word for your medicine." —Mrs. W. M. Stephens, 202 Harvey St., Gainesville, Texas.
